MessageSolution delivers award-winning advanced information archiving and eDiscovery software solutions for email, SharePoint and file system archiving, legal discovery, introduces Microsoft Platform and Licensing Management Solutions for Office 365 and Microsoft platforms

Las Vegas (July 16, 2018) MessageSolution, an industry technology leader in Microsoft Platform and Licensing Management, compliance archiving and eDiscovery, will be exhibiting and network with its global partners at Microsoft Inspire 2018 (formerly annual Microsoft World Partner Conference), at the Mandalay Bay Convention Center in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Among the first providers to integrate with Microsoft Office 365, MessageSolution technologies allow companies to directly import legacy email and file data that is already stored in Office 365, preserve the end users Outlook and file folder structures, archive the ongoing new data for regulated compliance and litigation cases, and support file and SharePoint document management. Supporting all Office 365 email service plans (including Business Professional B and E plans), MessageSolution delivers a complete Microsoft Platform and Licensing Management for global partners and customers with integrated products and functionalities to reduce the Office 365 licensing cost. Integrated with Microsoft Azure Cloud Security Center and Outlook Labeling, MessageSolution enterprise-class compliance archiving and eDiscovery management solution for Office 365 delivers the highest ROI and reduces licensing cost by 40% for organizations of all size, preserving emails, OneDrive files and SharePoint documents for long-term archiving and storage cost control.

“Upon review for the annual renewals, many Office 365 customers find that their subscriptions are over-licensed with features and services that are paid for in Office 365 E3 or E5 Plans, but are not used,” stated Kevin McInerney, MessageSolution Global Marketing Strategist. “With MessageSolution integrated systems for Microsoft Platform Licensing Management, companies can save up to 40% on cost for compliance archiving, GDPR updates, and eDiscovery management”.

MessageSolution's open archive policy equips SME and enterprise customers with a suite of extensive eDiscovery and compliance management functionalities and a cost-effective, yet full-featured eDiscovery replacement for services including Office 365 Email Archive and eDiscovery Review. MessageSolution enterprise-class compliance archiving and eDiscovery management solution is affordable and reduces licensing cost by 40% for organizations of all sizes. MessageSolution Platform also reserves the OneDrive files and SharePoint documents for long-term archive and storage cost control.

MessageSolution further archives and protects organizations' distributed data on multiple email, data, file servers, platforms and geo locations. MessageSolution's built-in, high speed, unified search engine for data from all sources made data immediate available and regulatory compliant.

Financial service and banking organizations are often the data controller and data processor at the same time, subject to GDPR compliance for consumers from European region, these financial service organizations need to provide consumers with both the "right to access their personal data" and "right to be forgotten" (data deletion). MessageSolution Platform delivers the archive to preserve and protect personally identifiable information (PII) with advanced search based on regular Expression Protocol, making it practical to scan and monitor email and file shares for credit card numbers and PII information with workflow to review and delete the data when necessary. Leading global banks and financial organizations across the world implemented MessageSolution Platform for the new GDPR compliance requirements to manage their customers' financial and personal data from the EU region.

"Our global customers obtained the peace of mind that no matter what happens with their subscriptions and services in Office 365, they'll always have a proven copy of all their email, file and SharePoint data-set on MessageSolution Platform, with the option of either in our cloud or on customers' premise," says Kevin McInerney.

MessageSolution will be exhibiting and networking with global Microsoft partners at Inspire 2018, Booth 1802 of Mandalay Bay Convention Center in Microsoft Inspire 2018, Las Vegas from July 15 – 19, 2018.
